'Singham' of Karnataka Police Annamalai quits, may join politics

Bengaluru. Deputy Commissioner of Police (Bengaluru South) K Annamalai, who is popularly known as 'Singham' of Karnataka Police, resigned from his post on Tuesday. Annamalai, a native of Karur in Tamil Nadu, is a 2011-batch Karnataka cadre IPS officer. While there is a speculation that he could take a plunge in politics, in a letter addressed to his friends and well-wishers, he has not revealed any such plan. The letter is available on social media.

Annamalai's colleague and Director General of Police Railways (Bangalore region) D Roopa Moudgal, in a tweet, however, said that Annamalai will enter politics. "Spoke to Annamalai, IPS @DCPSouthBCP. He has tendered resignation today. He is plunging into politics. It requires guts, boldness to leave cushy, secure, hard earned IPS job. It is heartening to see such achievers & youngsters diving into politics. Wishing him all the best."

Annamalai, in his letter, said that the decision (to resign) was well-thought out for over six-months time. "Last year, my visit to Kailash in December 2018 in Hyderabad where he was being treated for swine flu. Annamalai has also written about his future plans in the letter. "For people who are speculating what next for me, I'm too small a man to have lofty ambitions. I just wanted to take some time out and enjoy those small things in life which I had missed out, be a good father to my son, who deserves every bit of my time as he is fast growing up, get into farming back home and see whether my sheep still listens to me as I'm no more a cop now."

Annamalai began his career as ASP of Karkala sub-division in 2013, before becoming SP of Udipi and Chikkamagaluru districts. He is known as an upright and strict officer. During his transfer from Udipi district, people in the district had protested his transfer.

No regulatory policy, Haryana, Punjab autos make a killing Chandigarh. The intensive challan drives against auto-rickshaws (three-wheelers), conducted by State Transport Authority (STA), UT of Chandigarh, has failed to put the increasing number of autos in the city under the ambit of law. The recent instruction issued by Punjab and Haryana High Court to Chandigarh Administration regarding the formulation of a regulatory policy to keep a check on the increasing numbers of autos (three-wheelers) in city has, in fact, raised a matter of concern. The STA, which is responsible for the registration of autos, has stopped registration of new three-wheelers in Chandigarh due to their sheer number (6,000), passed the buck to neighbouring cities of Mohali and Panchkula for managing the better presence of autos. Despite this, road safety experts maintain that it is the responsibility of local authorities to keep a tab on this menace.

As many as 7,136 autos, including those bearing Chandigarh, Panchkula and Haryana registration numbers, have been challaned in the city since January 1 to May 15 in this year alone. Challans were issued by STA and UT Traffic Police separately. STA alone has challaned 400 autos including those registered with Tricity, for various traffic violations. Chandigarh Traffic Police has challaned 6,648 autos and impounded 241 autos for various traffic offenses. STA Secretary, Harjeet Singh Sandhu, said, "We have stopped registration of new autos in Chandigarh. We are not authorised to register new autos. 6,000 auto-rickshaws have already been registered in the city. The real problem is that neighbouring cities of Panchkula and Mohali have a large number of autos they register. We challan autos bearing other states' number plates also. There is no rule that can prevent the entry of autos registered with other states, including Haryana and Punjab, in Chandigarh. We can challan all auto-rickshaws for violating traffic rules and norms. These queues and permits," according to Mohali's Transport Department, 13,200 auto-rickshaws have been registered in Mohali, and 5,000 in Panchkula. Harman Sidhu, a road safety expert, said, "There is not a single entry and exit point of Chandigarh, where you will not find unregulated and long queues of autos. These queues encroach upon cycle tracks and pedestrian paths. They are rashly driven and stop the auto-rickshaws in the middle of the road just to pick up passengers. This invites road accidents. Despite the fact that in Chandigarh, registration of new autos has stopped, people continue to purchase autos and run these on road with temporary registration numbers." A senior traffic police officer said, "We regularly challan autos for violation of traffic rules. The challan drive is still going on and is being conducted by Chandigarh Traffic Police. The challenge is issued for not wearing uniform, lack of all necessary documents, etc. On May 25.

Pune doctor says was forced to say 'Jai Shri Ram' during morning walk in Delhi

Pune. Dr Arun Gadre, a Pune-based gynaecologist who visited Delhi on Tuesday, said he was allegedly accosted by a group of men and forced to say 'Jai Shri Ram' while he was on a morning walk in the capital. Gadre, 61, who came back to Pune on Tuesday, told The Indian Express that he was "shocked" when the group, comprising four to five persons, stopped him while he was on his morning walk and directed him to say 'Jai Shri Ram'. "I must have muttered the words but they again asked me to shout it loudly... 'Jai Shri Ram'... and that's when I walked away," he said. The incident took place near Jantar Mantar in central Delhi early on Sunday, said Gadre. He had made a brief stopover in Delhi on his way to Bijnor in Uttar Pradesh and was staying at the YMCA near Jantar Mantar. The doctor said he didn't know why he was targeted for a specific reason. "I don't think I was targeted or anything like that. Perhaps these youngsters randomly picked me up and directed me to say 'Jai Shri Ram'. It was a quiet, peaceful morning otherwise..." said Gadre. "It was a shock to me as I had never been there. I was 61 years old and had never been there."

occurred. Regardless of one's religion or caste, people should not be harassed in such a manner and it is crucial for the government and political parties ensure that not a single person ever faces such a situation," he said. He has not filed a police complaint over the incident as he didn't want to "suffer any grievous physical injuries". "Moreover, I will never be able to identify any of these men, but this incident is a lesson to all of us as a society to let everyone coexist peacefully," he said. The doctor said in the last two days, he has received several messages from well-wishers who have expressed their support and condemned the incident. Gadre is also the president of the Alliance of Doctors for Health Care and, inspired by Babo Amte, he has also served in the tribal areas of Maharashtra for the last 30 years. Dr Abhijit More, health activist and coordinator of the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) in Delhi, by its segment, condemned the incident. "These incidents are of concern and it is unfortunate that a doctor who works in the tribal areas of Maharashtra has been targeted," said More.

Over 1,000 FPCs in Maharashtra non-functional or report zero business

These professionally-managed firms were expected to take the place of cooperative bodies which, over the years, have become either redundant or too politicised to work. Pune. Over a year after the Union Budget 2018 gave Farmer Producer Companies (FPCs) a five-year tax holiday, their performance in Maharashtra shows that the central government's step hasn't helped them much as, of the 1,696 registered FPCs in Maharashtra, 1,048 have either reported no business or were found to be non-functional. Formed by farmers, the FPCs are companies registered under the Company's Act by farmers. These professionally-managed firms were expected to take the place of cooperative bodies which, over the years, have become either redundant or too politicised to work. Recognising the importance of the FPCs in the agriculture sector, the budget had tried to give them a boost by announcing a five-year tax holiday. The central government had hoped that this would ensure these grassroot-level companies expand their activities and explore newer business avenues. A survey, conducted by the Department of Agriculture, took into consideration the 1,696 FPCs that are registered with government bodies like the World Bank sponsored-Maharashtra Agriculture Competitiveness Project, which has been completed. Small Farmer Agribusiness Consortium and NABARD, among others. The survey studied the FPCs in the commodities they deal with and their turnover. Data showed that of the 1,696 FPCs, 308 were found to be non-functional and 740 were found to have either reported no turnover or reported a turnover of 0. Of the remaining FPCs, 204 had reported turnover between Rs 10 and Rs 50 lakh per year, while 135 had reported turnover between Rs 7 and Rs 10 lakh. Only 104 FPCs have reported a turnover above Rs 50 lakh. Aurangabad had reported the highest number of non-working FPCs, 45, while Pune had reported the highest number of FPCs which have reported 0 or no turnover, 99.
